

Presenting...The Homeland Singers

This personable group of "hometown" favorites is actually made of a blend of brothers with voices who hail from diverse backgrounds and localities. They share their musical talents with willing listeners at events all over the Metroplex.

The Homeland Singers have been harmonizing since 2002. This group of seasoned veterans is made up of brothers from various Metroplex congregations. The members: Golden Harris, Otis Pitts, Arlanders Mitchell & Randal Dean (Greenville Avenue), Hubert Hartin (Marsalis Avenue), and Jimmy Adams (Cliff View) carry the philosophy that, "it's all about Christ and not the group."

According to Randal Dean, the reason he enjoys being a part of this group is, "Inspiration". He says, "I want to share with those outside of the church, the beauty of a cappella music." To him witnessing through song "(points) others to true worship, the way the Lord wants the New Testament church to worship, in spirit and in truth."

To date the Homeland Singers had donated receipts of CD sales to the SDF totaling $1,500. According to Golden Harris, "we select our songs based on the messages they carry. Everything we sing must be based on sound doctrine." They are in the process of producing their third CD. Feel free to contact any member of the group to purchase your copy of their uplifting selections.

